Re: Loud Records, LLC et al. v. Lee Thurston
United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts
Case No. 04-30136-MAP

Dear Mr. Thurston:

This law firm is counsel to the record company Plaintiffs. You were served with the Summons and Complaint on July 22, 2004. On October 4, 2004 you agreed to settle this matter for $4,000. We still have not received payment and the signed documents. As the Summons stated, the law required you to file and serve a response to the Complaint within 20 days after you were served. Because you have failed to do so, Plaintiffs now have the right to ask the Court to enter your default and to enter judgment against you for all of the relief sought in the Complaint, including monetary damages and an injunction. We urge you to either return the Stipulation to Judgment and Permanent Injunction and payment, or file and serve a response to the Complaint immediately, and to consult an attorney if you have not yet done so. Failure to respond to the Complaint can have serious consequences for you.

Unless we receive payment and the signed and dated Stipulation to Judgment back from you within seven (7) days from the date of this letter, we will ask the court to enter your default.

If you would like to try to settle this case promptly, you or your attorney may contact the record companies' representatives by phone at (206) 973-4145, by facsimile at (206) 242-0905, or by e-mail at info@settlementsupportcenter.com. Please do not contact any of the lawyers listed on the Complaint or any of the plaintiff record companies for purposes of discussing settlement. Contacting the record companies' representatives to discuss settlement, however, is not a substitute for filing immediately a response to the Complaint.

Sincerely,

Yvette Molinaro
